Yes! I'm interested in the 9 salons that will help me focus my marketing efforts. I understand my obligations are to:

- Be serious about marketing my art, as the title of the group implies. I will come prepared to discuss the subject at hand, bring the materials requested, and share my thoughts and ideas.
- Attend all nine sessions (three months of bi-weekly meetings, plus a follow-up meeting one month later). If I think I might miss more than one or two of the sessions, I will wait for a better time..
- Participate with positive feedback and support other group members in their endeavors.
- Commit to complete confidentiality when requested. The group must be a safe place for members to feel they can be open, honest, and trusting.

Sign me up! I'm excited to get started!
